TO: Local and District Emergency Management Coordinators
SUBJECT: Homeland Security Grant Deadlines

This informational letter is provided to remind emergency management jurisdictions and individuals of the deadlines for the various Homeland Security Grant Programs that are currently being administered by the Emergency Management Division. Emergency management program managers should review these dates in light of their individual participation in the grant programs to ensure that allocated grant funds are expended in a timely manner and your jurisdiction is able to make full use of funding.

Submission of grant reports, exercising or training documentation, equipment purchase requisitions, or other grant specific material should be submitted to the Emergency Management Division prior to these identified dates.
